

Manufacturing/Distribution

CAREER PATHWAY:	Industrial Technologies
Career pathways are used to help high school students choose classes which will support majors at the community colleges and/or 4-year institutions.	Administrative	General Production Workers	First Line Supervisors/Industrial Production Managers	Machinists	*Electrical Engineers	Transportation/Trucking
MINIMUM EDUCATION or BASIC SKILLS REQUIRED:	High School or G.E.D., customer service skills, computer experience, math, reading and writing	High School Diploma or G.E.D.	High School Diploma or G.E.D.	High School Diploma or G.E.D., experience, problem solving, math, writing and reading	4-year degree	High School Diploma or G.E.D.
Educational requirements will vary by industry and employer.
AVERAGE SALARIES:
Minimum	$ 16,281.00	$ 14,534.00	$ 25,747.00	$ 23,685.00	$ 49,516.00	$ 22,598.00
Maximum	$ 27,225.00	$ 25,596.00	$ 44,217.00	$ 39,216.00	$ 70,368.00	$ 33,177.00
*Salary data obtained from Employment Security Commission Website
Community Colleges & 4-year College and Universities

Community Colleges and 4-year Colleges and Universities that would offer training

Alamance Community College	Bennett College*
Davidson County Community College	Elon University*
Guilford Technical Community College	High Point University*
Montgomery Community College	North Carolina A&T*
Randolph Community College	North Carolina State University*